Our Mission: PSA Bylaws. Article 2, Nonprofit Purposes. Section 2. Specific Objectives and Purposes:

The specific objectives and purposes of this corporation shall be:

- (a) to promote public awareness of the portrait as a valid and valuable art form through exhibitions, critiques, lectures, workshops, publicity and other forms of professional development.*
- (b) publish a quarterly magazine containing articles and features focusing on portraiture, contemporary as well as historical.*
- (c) to engage in other activities related to educating the public regarding portraiture.*

The organization is dedicated to passing on to the general public the collective knowledge of its members. Accepting and following these objectives will create a new and greater respect for the portrait as an art form by the public. Additionally, applying these objectives will improve the quality of the work done by portrait artists and increase the stature of portraiture and each portrait artist.

BY TYPING MY NAME and submitting this application and upon its subsequent acceptance/approval (PSA Bylaws, Article 12, Section 3), I ACKNOWLEDGE my responsibility to individually and collectively support the PSA in all of its educational program activities by conducting myself in a manner consistent with the PSA educational mission and altruistic spirit of a public charity organization as dictated by Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
